

“Stand by Kids” Supporting Service for

Child & Youth Witnessed Family Conflict/ Intimate Partner Violence

Kids who are witnessing or being exposed to family conflict or intimate partner violence will lead to their emotional instability and hurts.

“Stand by Kids” Supporting Service for Child & Youth Witnessed Family Conflict/ Intimate Partner Violence aims to enhance the life skills of kids in addressing unfavourable circumstances. Also, the child-centred approach is used to enhance the knowledge of parents in understanding the needs of their kids.

“SPeaR Child and Youth Educational Programme” aims at educating the kids about the knowledge of Intimate Partner Violence and responsibilities, so that the resiliency of kids can be enhanced when they facing trauma. Also, non-violence communication method would be educated.

Professional training is provided to enhance early identification and risk assessment of child witnessed Intimate Partner Violence, so that appropriate intervention can be rendered.
