Have you come across the following situations with your intimate partner?

During conflict, you do not allow your intimate partner to voice out her/her opinions.

You often have conflicts with your intimate partner due to parenting issue, household chores, monetary issue, etc.

During conflict, you lose temper easily and feel difficult to control emotion.

I lack effective ways to resolve intimate partner conflict.

You use physical violence to your partner, including: slapping, punching, pushing, etc.

During the conflict, you always threaten and/or humiliate your partners.

We invite you to join Project "H.O.R.I.zon" to resolve the intimate partner conflict and improve your intimate relationship.
